"powerful results"

★★★★★ Reviewed October 6, 2014

I went to Jelila for a reprogramming session, and for a short course on light language. I found both very beneficial and can definitely recommend Jelila to anyone who hopes for a transformation in their life, to clear blockages and beliefs that are not serving them, and to bring other desired qualities into their life. Jelila could quickly perceive limiting beliefs that were not so obvious to me until pointed out. Then we could transform these beliefs into more positive ones. The light language course helped me to bring more peace into my life.

"A Real Life Healer"

NEW

★★★★★ Reviewed October 17, 2014

I traveled to see many healers and have not always found lasting benefit. A friend introduced me to Jelila and I loved her grounded practical energy. It's been more than a year since I worked with her and the results have been astounding. My life made a 180 and it's still going up!! If you are looking for someone who will truly help you reclaim your life and give you tools to invent new possibilities and attain them...Jelila will give you this and more.

"My western version of 'Ketut Liyer' from Eat Pray Love"

 Reviewed October 4, 2014

My friend and I were keen to have some spiritual advice on our upcoming holiday in Ubud, Bali having watched the movie Eat, Pray, Love. I did some research on reviews and they weren't promising. I found a blog about crystal healing and she mentioned Jelila. I took a punt and gave her a try. She was everything that I wished for. I did chakra balancing and reprogramming which went for about two hours. Jelila has an amazing gift of listening with her heart. Firstly, I got to talk about my main issues that I am facing in my life. She then mapped out the sub-conscious beliefs which are creating the obstacles. I then closed my eyes and Jelila then guided me to let go of them using my hands. I then lay on a bed and Jelila put crystals on my body and got her guitar out and sang some beautiful songs to integrate the healing in me. Her insights into what my body was telling her were accurate and I felt that I understood myself better. At the end of the session I feel so contented and whole. It's been a week since I've seen her and am now back in Sydney. The witness in me is really noticing how my patterns run and I am choosing to change them as they arise. It's something that's happening deep within. Seeing Jelila was one of the highlights of my short trip to Ubud, Bali.

"Harmonious Healing with Jelila"

NEW

★★★★★ Reviewed October 16, 2014

Jelila has an amazing Gift, the gift of grace and giving. With a little guidance from this Angel we all have the potential to honor and offer our gifts to this world as well.

With Jelila's guidance and 3 days of split morning and evening sessions, I was introduced to her unique approach of reprogramming negative beliefs with positive ones. With her support, I was able to identify and understand belief relationships and patterns, while learning how to release them from the sub-conscious.

After each session, the power of "The Gift " was progressive. Personal transformation emerged as an internal framework of positive beliefs were linked together, with surprising clarity and ease.

Crystal chakre healing and sound/voice healing were used to ground the close of each session with songs written and sung by Jelila. The loving messages embedded into the music paired with her voice blanket you like angel's dust, as you take in the magnitude of each session.

Accepting to journey with Jelila has profound effects, resulting in positive relationships internally and externally. What is gifted in the healing experience is effective on a continuum. My gift wish for an abundance of time is now, thank you Jelila for your help, guidance, and love.

"Peaceful, trusted, and wise"

★★★★★ Reviewed October 2, 2014

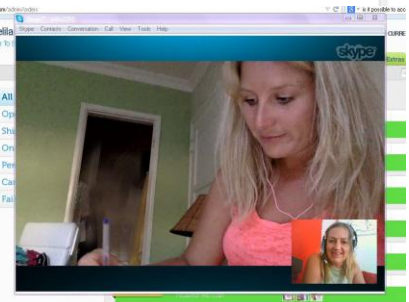

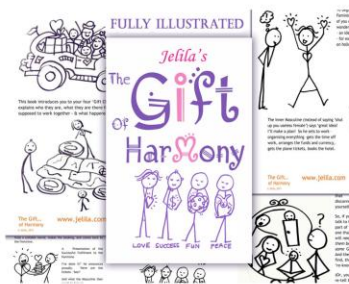

It is so lovely to write this review and think back four months ago when I was with Jelila in Ubud. She is a very kind, wise, and talented practitioner, who gently makes you feel at ease and at peace.

I didn't want to write a review at first back then because I didn't know what the longer-term impacts of the 3 days work I did with her would be, but I am now pursuing my creative dreams in California. I started with 1hr chakra cleansing, and then did the 8hrs over the next couple of days. Initially, I was amazed just how calm and empty my mind was. I do believe that some of the confidence, removal of obstacles, and peace that I found within is down to the processing (The Gift of Harmony) and healing that Jelila provided.

If you are at all curious about this, you would be really lucky to have Jelila as your healer too and I hope you take this amazing opportunity! :)

The reviewer does a great job of drawing her own 'Gift Characters' during an online Skype session – and reaches a new understanding of what's going on inside herself.
